

Terms and Conditions for use of Probitas Authentication Certification Logos and Marks

An AQMS Training Provider that has been approved by Probitas Authentication may use the Probitas Authentication name and logo on its literature and advertisements (in any form, including electronic) subject to the conditions below. AQMS Training Providers must exercise proper control over use and display of the Probitas Authentication logo.

- Only AQMS Training Providers approved by Probitas Authentication may use the Probitas Authentication logo. Training Providers that are not approved by Probitas Authentication, or who are in application for approval shall not use the Probitas Authentication logo.
- The Probitas Authentication logo shall be reproduced following the guidelines established and documented in the Probitas Authentication Logo Guide;
- If the AQMS Training Provider has its own mark/logo and applies it to materials together with the Probitas Authentication logo, the Probitas Authentication logo size must not exceed the size of the AQMS Training Provider's mark/logo.
- All materials referring to Probitas Authentication and/or bearing the Probitas Authentication logo shall include the Training Provider's name as it appears on the Probitas Authentication certificate and in OASIS.
- The AQMS Training Provider shall not make statements in advertisements, catalogs, courses, certificates, etc., that could serve to undermine the reputation of Probitas Authentication. Any and all violations shall be subject to suitable actions, which may include, but are not limited to, corrective action, suspension, or withdrawal of Probitas Authentication approval and, if necessary, legal action.
- In addition to the above, misuse of the Probitas Authentication name and/or logo by an AQMS Training Provider applicant, or a Training Provider that has not submitted an application for approval, or has not yet received approval, will jeopardize its current submission or any future attempt to seek Probitas Authentication approval.
- The AQMS Training Provider shall exercise proper control to ensure that all published materials, including those provided and/or distributed by a contract organization, follow the required conditions and rules.
- The AQMS Training Provider shall take suitable action to deal with incorrect references to its certification or certification status, or misleading use of the Probitas Authentication logo in advertisements, catalogs, etc.
